Definition of Healthcare Organizations (HCO)

Means typically an organization that is comprised of healthcare professionals and that provides healthcare service and/or conducts healthcare research.

一般指由医疗专业人士组成的机构，提供医疗服务和/或进行医疗研究的机构。

HUTCHMED's View

The Company pursues high ethical standard in medical interaction programs in relation to medical institutions and relevant professional associations.

本公司致力于以高道德标准，适当地与医疗卫生机构、相关专业学会及协会进行医学互动交流
活动。

The engagement with HCOs does not interfere with their independence, and is not as an inducement or reward to the HCO or relevant HCP in exchange for prescribing, recommending, purchasing, supplying or administering the Company products.

和医疗卫生机构的互动，不影响其独立性；不以资助医疗卫生机构的活动作为交换，诱导其或
相关的医疗卫生专业人士开具处方、推荐、采购、供应和/或使用任何本公司的药品。

The Company provides financial support to HCO, which is a reputable institution/organization.

本公司提供资金支持的医疗卫生机构是有良好声誉的机构/组织。

There should be a clearly identified and legitimate purpose for the financial support.

资金支持需有一个明确、合法的目的。

A written agreement must be in place between the two parties to enhance the transparency of fund transfer and documentations.

双方需签署协议，以提高资金流转和记录的透明度。

The support shall be paid directly to the HCO receiving the support.

资金需直接支付给接受支持的医疗卫生机构。
