

Client: Hutchison China MediTech

Publication: Dow Jones

Date: 30th July 2009

Dow Jones Newswires

Hutchison China MediTech Climbs To Pft From Loss On Sales +23%

LONDON (Dow Jones)--Hutchison China MediTech Limited (HCM.LN), said Thursday it climbed from a loss to record its maiden profit on a 23% increase in group sales, during the six months ended June 30.

MAIN FACTS:

- Pretax profit $0.32 million (1H 2008: loss $4.0 million).
- Sales up 23% to $56.7 million (1H 2008: $45.9 million).
- Loss per share $0.05 (1H 2008: $0.12 million).
- Operating profit $0.6 million (1H 2008: loss $3.8 million).
- Net loss after interest, tax, and minority interests $2.7 million (1H 2008: loss $6.4 million).
- Net operating cash inflow $7.1 million (1H 2008: outflow $8.0 million).
- Cash and cash equivalents $39.6 million (1H 2008: $45.2 million, December 31, 2008: $38.2 million).
- China Healthcare Division: Sales up 23% to $53.1 million (1H 2008: $43.2 million).
- China Healthcare Division: Operating profit up 31% to $9.5 million (1H 2008: $7.3 million).
- China Healthcare Division: Net profit after interest, tax, and minority interests up 35% to $6.6 million (1H 2008: $4.9 million).
- Drug R&D Division: Encouraging Phase II Crohn's Disease trial result.
- Drug R&D Division: $5.6 million in cash received from partners Eli Lilly and Ortho-McNeil-Janssen.
- Drug R&D Division: Operating loss down 35% to $5.2 million (1H 2008: -$8.0 million).
- Consumer Products Division: Sales down 12% to $1.7 million due mainly to weaker GBP.
- Consumer Products Division: Comparable sales in London shops down 4.2% in difficult U.K. retail conditions.
- For the six months ended June 30, Chi-Med, has reached operating profitability and positive cash flow for the first time due to strong growth in its China Healthcare Division and reduced losses in its Drug R&D Division.
- The Group maintains a positive outlook for the rest of the year and beyond.

-By London Bureau, Dow Jones Newswires; Contact Ian Walker; +44 (0)20 7842 9296;
ian.walker@dowjones.com