Buy, sell or hold: today's best share tips

And finally ...

Hutchison China MediTech, little known but championed by this column before, has signed an interesting deal with AstraZeneca to distribute its Seroquel antipsychotic drug in China. Diagnoses of schizophrenia and bipolar disorder are rising as the country's healthcare system matures. The shares rose by 4 per cent. A note from Panmure Gordon says that the large pharmaceuticals companies increasingly regard Hutchison's distribution system as a good way to market the company's products in China.
